

Australia's largest association of professional Celebrants

The Australian Federation of Civil Celebrants Inc. (AFCC) is the largest national association of professional Celebrants in Australia with almost 2,000 members. We provide representation, networking and learning across all aspects of celebrancy.

AFCC members will professionally create and conduct a range of ceremonies including marriages, funerals, commitment ceremonies, renewal of vows, baby namings as well as a range of many other important occasions and life events. Learn more about ceremonies below.

The AFCC offers a range of opportunities and encourages all members to maintain the essential qualities of professional celebrancy which are:

- helpful service
- privacy and confidentiality
- cultural awareness
- choice of ceremony
- appropriateness
- dignity and professionalism

The AFCC provides Ongoing Professional Development opportunities right around the country to its members, including OPD at the AFCC National Annual Conference subject to Attorney-General's Department approval.

The AFCC strives to provide networking opportunities to members via the State and Territories Liaison Officers. AFCC members receive significant price privileges.

Members of the AFCC have opportunities to work with like-minded professionals, with access to an online discussion forum covering a vibrant range of relevant topics. Click here to learn more about our benefits of membership.
